

The Egan PTA is pleased to present a local Los Altos author and teenage organizational expert...

I Left My Homework on My Printer - Getting Organized: Helping Your Child be Successful in School

Ana Homayoun

- When: Thursday, March 4, 2010
7:30 p.m. – 8:30 p.m.
- Where: Egan Junior High School Multi-Purpose Room
100 S Portola Avenue, Los Altos
- Who: Parents, teachers and administrators. Talk will focus on junior high and high school students; elementary school parent welcome
- Fee: No fee. No registration required

Author and noted teenage organizational expert Ana Homayoun talks about why students, particularly boys, struggle with organization, and what parents can do to motivate their children to become more organized and manage their time more effectively.

Ana will be signing her new book, That Crumpled Paper Was Due Last Week: Helping Disorganized and Distracted Boys Find Success in School and Life, following the March 4th Q&A session. Kepler's Books & Magazines will be selling the book.

About Ana Homayoun

Since founding Green Ivy Educational Consulting, (www.greenivyed.com), Ana Homayoun has become a nationally recognized innovator of motivational organization and time-management strategies for junior high and high school students. In addition to her individualized consulting and college counseling services, she is a frequent writer and lecturer on child and adolescent issues.

Ana graduated from Egan Junior High and St. Francis High School in Mountain View. She holds an undergraduate degree from Duke University and a Master's Degree in Counseling Psychology from University of San Francisco.

Questions? Contact Egan Parent Education Co-Chairs Charlene Chang, charleneychang@gmail.com or Holly Cohen, holly_cohen@sbcglobal.net