Using real-life scenarios, humor and poignant cases, Dr. Ken Ginsburg will teach all of us how to raise resilient children who can deal with stress in an increasingly complex world. Dr. Ginsburg's unique perspective emphasizes the developmental strengths of youth, equipping participants with skills needed to better teach kids to help themselves.

Learn how to:

- Develop the seven C's:
Competence, Confidence, Connection, Character, Contribution, Coping & Control
- Recognize the red flags that may indicate when a child/teen is at risk.
- Support children and teens to develop positive coping strategies.

Dr. Kenneth Ginsburg, M.D., MS Ed, FAAP, is a nationally renowned pediatrician, specializing in Adolescent Medicine at our nation's largest adolescent health clinic The Children's Hospital of Philadelphia. He is a leading authority on developing resilience in children and adolescents. Dr. Ginsburg is the director of Health Services at Covenant House of Philadelphia, a shelter for homeless and disenfranchised youth. His books include "A Parent's Guide to Building Resilience in Children and Teens", "But I'm Almost 13; An Action Plan for Raising a Responsible Adolescent", and is co-author of "Less Stress, More Success".

Kepler's will be selling Dr. Ginsburg's books.
